

Use the following to educate your clients and increase your success:

Any collection effort is impossible without the ability to contact your debtors to make restitution arrangements. Our firm has diligently attempted to locate your missing debtors, and we have exhausted the resources available to us. We recommend you consider a highly specialized service that will locate your missing debtors and increase your potential recovery.

The locate specialist program, offered by International Research Specialists, Inc. ("IRS, Inc") is a 38-year tried and proven program with an 80% "guaranteed" success rate. The fees for IRS, Inc's location services are a recoverable cost.

We suggest this program as an alternative to losing the opportunity to recover money owed to you. Once your debtors are located, our firm can effectively recover your debt at favorable rates.

IRS, Inc. will provide the expertise to research and locate your missing debtors. You control the criteria of all accounts forwarded. Once located, IRS, Inc. will forward the newly found contact information directly to our firm so that we can begin the recovery efforts on your behalf.

Simply call 800.327.8699 to speak with an IRS, Inc. representative. Find out for yourself how many of their clients have recovered from as many as 67% of their "newly located debtors" with this highly effective service.
